HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. B. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

DATES TO AUGUST 26.

Chicago Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Seven colored convicts cut the grates of their cells at the State prison in Joliet on Saturday night and escaped. All have been captured.

Late on Monday evening, Patrick Halsey attempted to light a fire from a can of kerosene, which exploded, burning Mr. and Mrs. Halsey and two children. Mrs. Halsey and one child died. It is hoped the other child and Halsey will recover, though badly burned.

A girl named Amelia Wahl was burned last night from the explosion of a kerosene lamp, so that her recovery is impossible.

The body of a man about 60 years old was found floating in the lake yesterday afternoon. Suicide is suspected.

John Hough, an employee on Pullman's Palace car was drowned yesterday while bathing in the lake.

Mrs. Burke, a married woman residing in Twenty-second street, died suddenly yesterday, under circumstances justifying the interposition of the Coroner, who is having the stomach examined. Her husband has been in the habit of beating her.

A newly married woman named Green, boarding at a fashionable house on Wabash avenue, attempted suicide by taking morphine yesterday, but was saved after protracted efforts. Some unpleasantness with her husband is the cause. The woman was heartily ashamed of the attempt and promises not to do the like again.

The deaths for the week are 250, of which 119 are under one year of age.

An Italian National Convention will be held in this city, commencing to-morrow. The object is to devise means for the education of Italians. About one hundred and fifty delegates are expected to be present.

The Internal Revenue department appears to be still compromising the revenue frauds. Yesterday Pennsylvania frauds involving $90,000, were settled on very satisfactory terms to the accused.

The Tribune's New York special says the movement for removing Belmont from the Democratic National Committee and putting Weed in his place appears to be popular with the Democracy.

A re appearance has been ordered in the Susquehanna railroad contempt of Court case.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—The Tribune's Gettysburg special says only about fifty officers have accepted the invitation of the Memorial Association. Of these, perhaps six commanded divisions at some stage of the battle, and about as many commanded brigades. Not much enthusiasm is felt, and but little will be ascertained of the special positions of the troops beyond what is already known. The growth of shrubbery and changes in the farms make identification of regimental positions almost impossible.

A special from Lawrence says that advices from the neutral lands in Kansas represent the railroad party to be rapidly gaining strength.

Yesterday a large meeting was held in Girard, the seat of Crawford county, composed of loyal men and Leaguers, who acted together in the utmost harmony in favor of the east and west road. It is believed the difficulties between the railroad and anti-railroad parties will be amicably settled.

A great campmeeting on the borders of Kansas and Missouri, under the auspices of the Kansas and Missouri Conferences, is largely attended. Numerous conversions have been made and great religious interest is awakened.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A delegation from the Congress of the National Labor Union waited upon the venerable Peter Cooper yesterday afternoon at his Mansion in Lexington avenue. Speeches were made by the Chairman, General West, of Mississippi, Pratt, of Massachusetts, and other members of the Committee, to which Cooper responded endorsing the platform and principles.

A meteor which ascended vertically and descended over the same course, was seen at Philadelphia and Washington last evening. It was not observed at the National Observatory, as none of the astronomers have yet returned from the expeditions to observe the Solar eclipse.

The bank note companies, while making favorable promises, seem to be unable to give the Government a sufficient supply of bank notes and currency. They are only furnishing about $40,000 per day, when at least $200,000 are required. There is some probability that the currency printing bureau of the Treasury Department will be re-established.

Nearly all the shoemakers in Newark, N. J., are on a strike, owing to insufficient pay and the introduction of machinery.

P. S. Conant has resigned the managing editorship of the Times. He is succeeded by Bigelow.

The Typographical Union and the Erie Courts.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—Much indignation has been created among the printers of this city, at the reported charge to the grand jury, in Erie, yesterday, by Judge Vincent, in the case of the Erie Republican vs. the Typographical Union. The charge is considered so unfair and one sided that funds will be raised here to assist the Erie printers to test the case.

Albany Dispatch.

ALBANY, Aug. 25.—The inspectors of the State prisons held a consultation with a committee from the Prison Association, yesterday, as to the proper mode of punishing refractory convicts, in view of the recent revolt at Sing Sing. Desultory conversation took place and various modes of punishment were suggested without taking any definite action on the subject. Adams was nominated for Governor and S. O. Lamb, of Greenfield, for Lieut. Governor. Resolutions were adopted denouncing the prohibitory law and condemning the Legislature for not granting charters to certain labor organizations. They recognize the duty of acquiescing in results already arrived at in national affairs, etc. The convention was harmonious.

The property of the Worcester Horse Railroad, which created so much discussion the past year was yesterday sold at auction by the receiver and bid in by a number of members of the old company, for $25,000.

Cincinnati Dispatch.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 26.—The coroner held an inquest to-day on the body of John Bibb, killed yesterday by blows from the club of police officer Cottle. The evidence tended to show that the officer was utterly unjustifiable, not only in the blows, but in making the arrest. Witnesses swore that the murdered man, up to the time of assault, was sitting quietly on the steps of his own house when the officer approached and struck him three blows on the head with a mace. Others swore that the murdered man did not say a word all the while. He died in fifteen hours after. He leaves a wife and three children. The coroner's jury pronounced Cottle a murderer.

All the crops except wheat are luxuriant, and with good corn imported and sold under fifty shillings per quarter, we can easily afford to lose the little home grown wheat for the sake of a plentiful stock of food and better pastures.

The Times, on the boat race, says that good judges assert that the Harvards show signs of over training. The river watermen, however, favor the idea that they must win the race. Boating men generally divided, the majority being in favor of the Oxfords.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The Harvard four were out to-day in Elliott's boat, weighted up to the standard of the Burnham boat. The performance of the new boat was generally satisfactory. It is thought the crew are more formidable to their opponents in this than any other craft. They have tried both. The Harvard and Oxford [crews] rowed over the entire course, the latter making the distance in thirteen second less than the former. The opinion is generally entertained by [illegible] men that that the Oxfords will beat, but the appearance of the crews hardly warrant the [assump]tion that either is superior to the other. The result will depend mainly on the skill of the coxswain and his perfect know[ledge] of the [course].

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

The Mormon Question.

The difficulties in the way of getting at the bottom of the Mormon question are more formidable than would appear at first glance, and although every right-minded man in the country favors closing out the polygamous crew, it is difficult to conceive a plan by which it can be accomplished. The Chicago Evening Post presents its view of the difficulties as follows:

Because men will have more than one wife, will the Government send an army against them? If so, when at its destination, what will the army do? We tried that once, and found that, though the force had been ten times as strong as it was, it could have done nothing. There was nobody to fight. there was nobody resisting the law. there was no rebellion; there was nothing to fire even a blank cartridge at. But, send an army to enforce the law against polygamy? Of course, that may be done; but, when a warrant is served, a jury empanneled and the trial commenced, does not the enforcement of the law rest with the jury at last? Can an army make that jury bring in such a verdict as it desires? Are there muskets, Springfield rifles and mountain howitzers enough in all our arsenals to make a Mormon jury find Brigham Young guilty, no matter what he is charged with? If he were acquitted, what then? The persecuted saint, triumphant by God's special favor, is revered more than ever before. But if condemned by a jury not of his faith, he rises at once in the estimation of his followers, to the dignity next below martyrdom, and the advantage of the conviction is all with the man convicted. How then is polygamy to be punished? Will Congress pass a law prohibiting all polygamists from holding judicial office or sitting on juries? All Mormons are not polygamists, hence the remedy would be ineffectual. Will the Government resort to the policy of packing juries for the purpose of securing conviction? Can any Government afford to do that?

The Penalties of Over Appetite.

From the New York Herald.

Sancho Panza blessed the man who invented sleep. Thomas Farrell curses the man who invented an appetite. It is no wonder that Thomas feels thus anathematizingly inclined as regards his own particular appetite, for its hugeness is extraordinary. His arraignment on a charge of violating the Hotel act developed its extraordinary capacity. John E. Bowden, clerk of the Western Hotel, in Cortlandt street, was the complainant against him.

"In what way did this man violate the Hotel act?" the Judge asked the complainant.

"He came in the other day and got his supper," Mr. Bowden proceeded to state, "and was walking away without paying for it."

"What did he say when you demanded pay?" pursued the Judge.

"He said he had no money, and because I remonstrated with him for his conduct, he became very abusive and threatening; and therefore I had him arrested."

"How did you discover that he had taken his supper?" the magistrate further inquired.

"One of the waiters called my attention to the fact of his extraordinary appetite."

"What did he eat?"

"He ate three steaks, one after another; then three plates of cold tongue, which he followed up with a plate of cold beef and another of cold mutton."

"Anything more?" asked the Judge, looking with astonishment at the prisoner, a rather medium-sized specimen of a young man, whose physique would betoken no such colossal-like powers of storing away pabulum.

"Accompanying the eating of the dishes named he devoured several rolls, and wound up with two dishes of blackberries and several doughnuts."

"This must certainly have filled him up to the brim," interrupted the Judge.

"Not quite. The interstices he filled up with five cups of tea."

"Well, Thomas what have you to say to this?" the Judge asked the accused.

"I had come from Jersey," he answered, "and was hungry."

"Did you have any money?"

"Only ten cents. I offered him that. It was the best I could do."

"But you were not going to pay him anything?"

"I felt ashamed to offer him so little money."

"After eating so much I think you ought to be put on low diet," said the Judge. "I sentence you three months fo the pententiary."

Matrimonial Advances.

The Rev. Dr. Bushnell, in his new book, "The Reform Against Nature," writes on this subject as follows:

There is one matter where a genuine reform would accomplish more for woman, as I verily believe, and take them out of the corner that now pinches them a great deal more, certainly, than to give them the right of suffrage and of civil office; having also the further advantage that it would give them a more open way to the proper woman's life, for which they are better made, instead of taking them off into quasi [illegible] with men for points of precedence, and prerogatives of government which do not belong to them, and never can. I speak here of a reform that takes off, or somehow loosens the embargo on woman, as respects advances toward marriage. The assumption now is that women must be first lassoed and taken, courted long and skillfully then, and almost to the death, before they can venture an approving look. If they cannot be conquered then, they must not be had, and they must take this ground themselves. On one side [illegible] must be a close fence of prudery, h[illegible] possible to be got over, and on the other, the man who will try, must go to it bravely, which also, for his modesty, is likely to be [illegible]. Full three-quarters of [illegible] who get stuck in their bachelor[illegible] are, in fact, [illegible] admirers of woman; such as ne[illegible] for any a[illegible] look upon [illegible] immortal a[illegible] it will not do for un[illegible] themselves in a way of being [illegible]. That [illegible] ship would [illegible] and [illegible] a sense of repulsion. Nobody would recommend to women that they get over their modesty, but the almost cholic stringency of what are called good manners in this matter might be relaxed, without real impropriety and with great advantage. The present iron-clad modesty which is simply ridiculous in either party, might be so far mitigated as to let feeling feel its way, and carry on its own courtship, requiring no restriction save the restriction of words and formal advances, and allowing nature to interpret and work out her problem, hampered by no unnatural coyishness. Women can not be forward and bold, but they are now a great way further off than they need be.

The Big Nugget "Welcome Stranger."

The 'Welcome Stranger' says an Australia [illegible], was found by two men, named John Deason and Richard Oates, on Friday, 5th February, 1869, near the Black Reef, Bulldog Gully, Moliagul, a short distance from Way[illegible]'s Reef, and only about mile from the celebrated Gypsy diggings. Deason and his mate had been working in the ground for several years past, and, as is well known, had got in digging parlance, so 'hard-up' as to have been refused credit for a bag of flour a week or so ago, and we believe the very day before the discovery were reminded by a tradesman that they were indebted to him a few shillings. Still they persevered, until on the day named D[illegible], in working round the roots of a tree, at about two inches below the surface, struck something hard with a pick, and exclaimed, 'D—n it! I wish it was a nugget, and had broken the pick!' On stooping down to examine the obstacle he found that the object of his [illegible] wishes was lying at his feet, and it seemed as if the monster was so large as to be immovable. It was, however, at length released from its virgin soil and carefully removed. The question then arose as to what was to be done with it, and the first intention was to convey it to Melbourne. When the men got to Dunolly with their prize they were advised to take it to the bank, and forthwith carried it to the London Chartered. The weight in the gross was then found to be 210 pounds troy, and preparations were at once made to break the mass to pieces and smelt it. The appearance of the 'welcome stranger' in this pristine state was something wonderful, and it seemed impossible to realize the fact that so large a mass of gold could be collected in one lump. But so it was. After no less than five hour's hammering, the monster was pounded up and smelted, the result being 2268 ounces 10 dwts. 14 grains of solid gold, exclusive of at least 1 pound weight, which was given by the delighted finders to their numerous friends, who were each anxious to retain a piece of the largest mass of gold the world has yet seen. Over £9000 were advanced on the nugget by the bank, the final value awaiting the result of assay.

How Pendleton was Nominated.—The following dispatch to the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph from Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 12th, shows how Pendleton was nominated by the use of the telegraph:

The Democratic State Central Committee met yesterday, all the districts being represented by their committeemen or by proxies. It was found the majority of the Committee were earnestly in favor of taking the responsibility of making a nomination, with Pendleton as their first choice.

A dispatch was sent to Pendleton, asking him if he would be their candidate. He answered that he did not want the position, and would prefer its being given to some one else. This did not suit, and the Committee took a recess, during which time dispatches flew to and from Cincinnati rapidly. At last John G. Thompson took his seat at one of the tables in the telegraph office, and stated the situation at length to Mr. Pendleton, who was in the telegraph office at Cincinnati.

When the Committee again met they unanimously nominated Pendleton, and then sent dispatches to the absent members asking an indorsement of their action. The indorsement was received, and Pendleton informed of the fact. He answered that, under the circumstances, he would accept the nomination, but it was contrary to his wishes.

ENDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA, W. T., March 27, 1869.

C. A. WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory, but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

JAS. S. LAWSON,
Asst. U. S. C. S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S. Lawson, Esq., and will add that Mr. Chas. A. White is a practical Surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory, as also the Coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

Ophthalmic Panacea

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER [illegible] yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought to public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, TEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a mis[illegible] ence from the effects of secret indulgences, or [illegible] absorbed into the system? Look at their pallid, bloated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid state thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering from any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important that those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing on the public by using the names of eminent phy[illegible] Europe and other places. Be therefore careful [illegible] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the following [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, [illegible] the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of m[illegible] flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the [illegible] furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If [illegible] not obtained, should apply immediately, either in [illegible] or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new [illegible] entific mode of treating this disease, which never [illegible] effecting a quick and radical cure. Some are tinsmiths, shoe makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, [illegible] will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but [illegible] find their former occupations in it. Look at the directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid deception is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive, [illegible] exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who call at his office of his ability to treat diseases he proposes to cure.

THE APPETITE FOR TOBACCO DESTROYED!

LEAVE OFF SMOKING AND CHEWING THE POISONOUS WEED, TOBACCO.

ORTON'S PREPARATION!
ESTABLISHED 1866.

One box of Orton's Preparation is warranted to destroy the appetite for Tobacco, in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be. If it fails in any case the money will be refunded. It is perfectly safe and harmless to all cases. It is almost impossible to break off the use of Tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted. With the help of the Preparation, there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are ready to bear witness to the fact, that Orton's Preparation completely destroys the appetite for Tobacco, and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by Tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of Tobacco from the system and thus allaying the unnatural craving for Tobacco. No more hankering for Tobacco after using Orton's Preparation. Recollect it is warranted.

The time taken to allay all desire for Tobacco by the use of the Preparation varies slightly in different persons, the average time being about Five days. Some have no desire for Tobacco whatever after using the Preparation Two days.

The Health and Purse of every Tobacco user in the country calls loudly, ABANDON THE USE OF TOBACCO.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the many recommendations in our possession

We, the undersigned, hereby certify that we have used Orton's Preparation for the purpose of destroying the appetite for Tobacco, and can assure those who are suffering from this habit that Orton's Preparation will entirely destroy the appetite for Tobacco quickly and permanently, and without any bad effect upon the health, and without creating an appetite either for the Preparation or any substitute.

W. P. Heald, Bangor, Maine; J. Moody, [illegible] Indiana; E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.; John [illegible] rill, Bangor, Maine; J. Bunch, Springfield, [illegible] D. Harrington, West Point, Georgia.

From Samuel Cassidy, Editor Journal & Argus.
PETALUMA, CALIFORNIA, Dec. 14, [illegible]

For about twenty years I had used Tobacco in various forms, and for the past eight years have been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that the excessive use of this narcotic was seriously injuring my health, I determined if possible to check my habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite for Tobacco, I sent to Portland, [illegible] box of the medicine, which I received through [illegible] on the 17th of November. A month has not elapsed yet the medicine has effectually relieved me of all yearning or desire to use Tobacco in any form. [illegible] Preparation is not more difficult or unpleasant than to commence chewing gum. I conscientiously believe the Preparation will have the promised happy effect in every instance where it is given a fair trial. Upon that belief and from an honest desire to assist those who wish to break away from the slavish appetite for Tobacco I offer this testimonial.

SAMUEL CASSIDY.

Beware of Counterfeits and all articles purporting to be like this, of the same name or other. The great popularity of Orton's Preparation has induced unprincipled persons to attempt palming upon the public counterfeit and inferior articles. Purchasers should order directly from the Proprietor or his duly authorized Agents.

The price of Orton's Preparation is $2 per box, or three boxes for $5, sent by mail to any part of the country, securely sealed from observation, with postage paid, on receipt of price.

THE REGATTA.—The fourth regatta of the Portland Yacht Club took place in the river, opposite this city, yesterday afternoon. The point selected for the start was just opposite the foot of Yamhill street. There were six boats entered for the race. The start was made from the Commodore's boat, stationed at the point above named, at about quarter past three o'clock. The boats sailed down the river, around a boat opposite the "Bone Yard," then to the foot of Ross' Island, and back to the starting point. The following are the names of the boats and the time made by each, respectively, named in the order of measurement and order of starting:

Elsie	1 49' 20"
Turtle	2 08' 06"
Nellie	1 48' 35"
Nonnie	1 47' 33"
Fleetwing	1 48' 04"
No Six	1 39' 54"

By the rules of the Club the No Six, owned and sailed by Geo. Chase, was declared winner of the first prize, and the Elsie, owned by J. W. Stevens and sailed by R. B. Randall, winner of the second.

The members assembled at 8 o'clock at the rooms of Mr. Hallock, Commodore of the Club, when the prizes were presented by that gentleman, with appropriate ceremonies. The first was a fine opera glass, and the second an elegant silver goblet.

In every respect we believe this race was the most interesting yet made by this club, many hundreds of persons witnessing it from the shore; while a large number were out in small boats, looking on. Through the politeness of the Secretary of the Club we were favored with a seat in the Fleetwing, sailed by Mr. Sutton, and though our vessel didn't win a prize, we enjoyed the sail. The club desires to return their thanks to the captain of the Portland Ferry for his courtesy shown in keeping his boat clear of the track of those of the club.

C[illegible].—The following correspondence from Oregon City is published at the request of the writer, who considers himself aggrieved by an article in Bro. Carter's Gazette:

EDITOR OREGONIAN—Dear Sir: In the last issue of the Corvallis Gazette the editor made some comments under the head of "The lost watch," which leave strangers unacquainted with the facts in the case to infer from what was said that the police force of Oregon City had acted in anyway but a courteous manner. The Gazette says, in speaking of the matter: "That an altercation of sharp words occurred between Bell and the night-watchman at Oregon City after Smith was arrested, when the night-watchman threatened to place Bell in the locker also. [illegible] have had a merry time if he had attempted it" and so on. The facts in the case are simply these: About 11 o'clock at night I met three men upon the streets, one of whom inquired if I was night-watchman. I told him I was. He immediately ordered me to take a man who was standing by him in charge. I asked several [illegible] about what he wanted him arrested for, and also for his authority, &c., all of which were answered in every way but a gentlemanly manner. I took the man to the jail. Bell then, after some parleying, produced his warrant, which I found was not endorsed. I went with Mr. Bell to a Justice and had his warrant endorsed, kept the man over night and had him brought to the hotel for Mr. Bell in the morning to take to Dalles. The truth is Mr. Bell was drunk, and had I have done my duty in accordance with a certain ordinance of the Common Council of Oregon City, I should certainly have given Mr. Bell lodgings over night.

Respectfully, JOHN KELLY, Night Watchman.

ONE OF THE TRICKS.—Some time ago a citizen of this place sent to New York for some books to be sent by express. A few days ago the books came to hand, and along with them a circular, which has been handed us, the recipient of the books saying he has "no use for it." We publish a portion of the circular to enable some to understand one of the tricks by which [illegible] persons are cheated out of their money or [illegible] ones are aided in the commission of crime. The business-like tone of the document is rather rich. "The author proposes to send perfect fac similes of U. S. greenbacks at the following rates: Package [illegible] $200 for $15, $500 for $30, $1,000 for $80, $2,000 for $80. He says:

"DEAR SIR: You being vouched to us for being all O. K., and "up to snuff," has induced us to forward our circular to you, and in doing so we rely on your honor and good faith, that it will ever remain a profound secret [illegible] us. The indorsements speak for themselves, and as [illegible] of the papers of the day, and as a business man, you are of course aware that a perfect imitation is as good in appearance as genuine, and the very [illegible] discover a difference.

"That [illegible] be made and is made in large amounts, [illegible] for us to inform you."

While in some cases the counterfeits may be sent, it is far more probable that the money which is forwarded for them will never be heard of again.

F[illegible].—From the Unionist of yesterday we gather [illegible] items:

Mr. [illegible] has purchased the Island, opposite South Salem, for three thousand dollars, with the intention of converting it into a dairy farm and making thereon [illegible] for the town cattle.

The Dallas stage driver reports that the rain of Tuesday night was very heavy in Polk county and Salem.

The Iliad was raising at Salem yesterday, and the [illegible] it will be four inches higher this morning than it was twenty-four hours since [illegible] by some that the rain will damage grain in [illegible], but from what we learn the crop will not suffer much. The grain still out is principally standing, and will [illegible] dry.

Judge Boise has been petitioned by the citizens of Yamhill [illegible] to hold a special term of the Circuit Court in [illegible] for the trial of the Claib Morris murderers.

[illegible] property adjoining the Stewart block, on [illegible] street, and on the corner of Court street, [illegible] as the Starkey stable property, has been sold to [illegible] Bros. for ten thousand dollars. There [illegible] over a lot, as the deed conveys 94½ feet fronting on [illegible] street, and extending 165 feet on [illegible].

THE DEPOT.—Full arrangements have been made for [illegible] the depot of the East Side railroad at a point nearly [illegible] opposite the present steamship landing at the lower end of the city. At this place there is an [illegible] of water, and the nature of the ground is such that the cost of erecting wharves, etc., will be [illegible] trifling. Ultimately the machine shops and other [illegible] for the road will be erected [illegible] place. A [illegible] tract of land has been [illegible] there by Mr. Holladay for these uses. He has secured the right of way along the river, which will come in at the mouth of the creek just above the [illegible] Mr. Shaw, and then run thence along the "[illegible]" down to the depot. It is the intention to fill in with earth up to the track and make the work in every respect a first rate one. This, however, will not be done this year. We understand that the [illegible] to arrive will be landed at the mouth of the creek [illegible] above, where a temporary landing will be [illegible], and which can be used until permanent [illegible] can be erected at the depot.

[illegible].—The ordinance passed by the Common [illegible] at the last meeting, in relation to the duties [illegible] of the City Recorder, very materially [illegible] the mode of compensation of that officer. Under it, it is made his duty to report all cases tried before him [illegible] acting as Justice of the Peace, at the end of [illegible], together with the amount of fines and costs [illegible] he is to pay over to the City Treasurer, taking [illegible] receipts therefor. Two-thirds of the fines and costs are to be considered as the compensation of the Recorder for his services, appropriation being made out of the general fund for that purpose.

[illegible] to provide for leasing rooms for city [illegible] the committee to lease rooms of Mr. [illegible] for a period of three years, at the rate of sixty dollars per month; Mr. Gilman to partition the rooms off as [illegible] and have fixtures for gas and water put in the same. The rooms are in the third story of the new building at the corner of First and Alder streets, and are very well [illegible] for the intended use.

[illegible] COURT.—A special term of this Court, Hon. W. W. Upton presiding, was held for this county yesterday. The following proceedings were had

R. K. Bybee, vs John Ellis et al. J. W. Whalley, referee herein, granted until first Monday in October to report, and exceptions, if any, to be filed by the first of next term.

[illegible] vs. Robert and Ann Sinnott—J. W. Whalley, Esq., referee herein, granted until the first Monday in October to report, and exceptions, if any, to be filed the first day of next term.

Frink & Holmes vs. D. Simon—judgment for plaintiff for $100 coin, as per stipulation filed.

[illegible] and W. H. Fitch vs. D. H. Lownsdale et al—decree to quiet title to plaintiff for north half of lot 4 in block 3, city of Portland.

ON THE RAMPAGE.—From reading the late Victoria papers, one would think that the natives of that country were on a "high old drunk." Drunken fighting Indians appear to afford a majority of the local items for the press, which make serious complaints that the authorities do not put a quietus upon their hideous orgies. Of one item in point, we give the substance. A few days ago one Indian bit off the nose of another and threw it on the sidewalk, after which both parties marched off unmolested by any police interference.

Other [illegible] of Siwash lawlessness might be quoted, but we forbear, lest our readers think we are depreciating the police regulations of our British brethren or trying to institute invidious comparisons.

THE EQUALIZER.—Dr. Bodman of this city, has purchased of Mr. Hadfield, the general agent, the right to use this great remedial invention in the county of Multnomah. Quite a number of persons afflicted with various [illegible] in Oregon have been treated by the Equalizing method and nearly or quite all express themselves as highly pleased with the effect. By reference to the advertisement of Dr. Bodman in this paper, the principal upon which the healing forces are applied will be seen, and we would recommend those afflicted with any of the [illegible] which it proposes to cure, to call at Dr. B's office on Front street, and try this wonderful method of [illegible].

A NEW BOOK.—A new work will soon be introduced to the public on this coast by J. Laws & Co., of San Francisco, which, it is promised, will be a valuable addition to every family library. It is entitled "The House We Live In, How to Keep it in Order," by P. & S. P. Sedgewick—a complete family physician, the result of seventy years experience in the practice of medicine and surgery, written in the plain language of the people, free from [illegible] terms and easily understood. It gives a new theory and treatment of fevers, which, it is claimed, will be proven by numerous certificates to have been eminently [illegible]ful.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—In this Court the following [illegible] were had:

In the matter of the petition of John Williams, a bankrupt, the order for discharge and certificate allowed.

In the case of the United States vs W. K. Smith, the [illegible] was closed and the cause continued for argument.

The Court adjourned to this morning.

[illegible].—The wharves of Couch & Flanders and the P. T. Company presented a busy aspect yesterday. The schooner Alaska and the steamers Telfair and Wright being engaged in discharging their cargoes.

THANKS.—We have been handed the following for publication

EDITOR OREGONIAN

At a meeting of the Portland Yacht Club, held last evening the following resolution was unanimously adopted

Resolved, That the thanks of the Portland Yacht Club be and are hereby tendered to the Portland dailies for favors shown in furthering the interests of the club

GEORGE F. BOWMAN, Secretary P. Y. C.

BY TELEGRAPH.—By the dispatches this morning, it will be seen that Hon. W. H. Seward arrived at Victoria yesterday. He will arrive here in a few days per steamer Active.

Hon. L. H. Roots, member of Congress from Arkansas, has arrived at Salem and will be in Portland this evening.

J. W. Carter's theatrical troupe are at Victoria, where they will play a short engagement, after which, we believe, they are coming to Portland.

A BREAK.—A horse attached to a light express wagon, took fright yesterday at the foot of Yamhill street and ran at a very fair pace around one or two blocks, but finally brought up with no serious damage to anything except the breaking of the dash-board and seat of the wagon.

IN PORT.—The bark Gulnare, from China, arrived at 8 o'clock last evening. She brought about 180 Chinese passengers, and 125 tons of freight, consisting of rice and general merchandise, consigned to Wa Kee & Co.

DUE TO-NIGHT.—The steamship Oriflamme, from San Francisco, will be due at this port this evening.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

The New York Times prints a long article on the "kerosene horror," in which it gives a list of fifty two persons who have been burned to death in that city during the past year from kerosene explosions.

Cincinnati has 230,000 inhabitants, 119 churches, three morning and two evening papers, besides two German dailies, and 19 weeklies, 20 monthlies and one quarterly. Its suspension bridge has the longest span in the world, and cost two millions.

Letter writers state that Mr. Russell Gurney's bill in the British Parliament for the "Protection of the property of married women" will probably become a law. It simply does for poor women what the rich always contrive to effect by means of marriage settlements—gives them a right to their own property or earnings.

The War and Navy Departments have transferred to the Treasury Department the power to contract for the recovery of all vessels, both Confederate and Federal, which were wrecked during the late war, in the Southern or other waters. The entire matter has been assigned by the Secretary to the division of captured and abandoned property in his office.

Of the five Harvard students who comprise the the American crew in the coming international boat race on the Thames, three came from the Western States and two from Massachusetts. Mr. Rice is from Roseburg, Oregon; Mr Bass and Mr. Burnham (coxswain) from Chicago, Ill. The bow oar (Loring) is a Boston boy, and the stroke oar (Simmons) is from Concord.

The impracticables of the Southern press see in the union of moderate Democrats with a section of the Republican party a decisive check to the chances of reviving the old Democratic organization. "Breakers ahead!" is the cry of the Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist. Yes—there are breakers ahead of the Democratic organization, says the New York Times, wherever moderate, conciliatory sentiments prevail.

Gen. Hickenlooper has some fifty drawings of the monument proposed to be erected to the memory of the brave McPherson, at Clyde, Ohio, and is waiting the co-operation of the other members of the committee before determining which one to select. The committee is composed of Gens. Hickenlooper, Hazen and Leggett. The amount required to provide the monument ($15,000) has been raised by subscription.

Crater Lake.

A party from Jacksonville has returned from trip to Southern Oregon's great natural wonder, the Sunken Lake. This sheet of water has a new name almost every year. First it was known as Blue Lake, then Sunken Lake, afterward Lake Majesty, and now Crater Lake. A member of the returned party has written a communication to the Sentinel, descriptive of their trip, from which we extract:

In approaching the lake from whatever direction, we had to ascend a mountain; it being located on a high point of the dividing ridge of the Cascades. From the south we gradually ascend to the summit through the heavy open timber, principally hemlock and spruce, until within two hundred yards of the lake, when we passed out of the timber into a grassy lawn mottled with sealberry and other flowering shrubs peculiar to high regions. Passing up this lawn, which was a little more precipitous than before, we arrived at the brink of the lake, which was skirted with timber at intervals, around its circumference. To say that this wonderful lake is grand, beyond description, is to give no idea of its magnificence. Every one gazes at it for the first time in almost fearful astonishment. Elevated 4,200 feet above the sea, we could scan the tops of the vast piles of mountains in every direction, while almost a quarter of a mile beneath our feet reposed the placid lake. From the best estimate we could make, the lake is about six and a half miles from the east to the west, and five and a half from north to south, and nearly oval in shape. It is entirely surrounded by walls of light colored basalt, scoria; and almost every conceivable variety of volcanic productions. Near the west end rises a cone-like island about a mile in diameter at the base, and about seven hundred feet in hight—this island is about two miles from the shore where we stood, and a half mile from the west end of the lake.

The party took a boat with them and descended to the waters edge preparatory to taking a ride on the lake. By a former measurement it was estimated that the walls surrounding this body of water were eight hundred feet high. There is no visible outlet to the lake. Of the boat ride the correspondent says: Five of the party started from the shore to the Island—a distance of two miles, which was reached in one hour. It took forty five minutes to climb to the top of the Island. This Island is but a loose pile of cinders and pomice stone, crumbling down at the very touch. Around the basin like crater is large piles of scoria ready to tumble down with the least exertion, and many, indeed, were the tons of this rock that we started down the precipitous sides of the Island. The rim around the crater is some five hundred feet deep, in the bottom of which remains a bank of snow.

The surface of the lake is frequently violently agitated by the wind, but there seems to be no regular currents of air. The wind comes in gales from almost every point of the compass within a few minutes. The party made some soundings and found the depth of the lake to be 650 feet, and it was supposed that in some parts the water might even be deeper. The water is quite palatable. There is no signs which indicate the presence of fish or animals about the lake's margin, a few birds were found on the Island.

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 27, 1869.

An Insane Policy.

It is difficult to understand why any person in Oregon, and especially in Portland, should manifest hostility to any railroad enterprise which is calculated to connect this city with the interior and thereby confer such advantages on the whole State as it has never before known. Disinterested people who do not take any part in controversies which have unfortunately arisen in our State in regard to railroads, but who earnestly desire the State to prosper in all its great industries, cannot see why any person here should take every opportunity to throw discredit upon an enterprise which promises such great and useful results as that which is now being conducted by Mr. Holladay. This gentleman has come to Oregon to build a railroad and he is building it. He asks nothing whatever from the people of Oregon but their good will, and this he is naturally desirous to have. He is building a railroad with his own money, and is thus disbursing in our State sums large enough to be materially felt in the channel of circulation. In view of these facts it is quite astonishing that any person in Portland should look upon the enterprise with disfavor, or strive to prejudice the public mind against it. Yet a newspaper in this city makes a specialty of attacking and misrepresenting this enterprise. It is continually insinuating that the road will not be built, and endeavoring to create the impression that the whole thing is a scheme to deceive, mislead and wrong our people. We must be pardoned for saying that we cannot exactly see how anybody in Oregon is to be injured by it in any event, as Mr. Holladay has not asked any citizen here for a dollar in the way of aid. But the Commercial, for some reason or other, is determined not to be convinced of the fact that he is actually building a road. One of these days somebody will have a lively race to escape from the cow-catcher!

Some time ago, Mr. Holladay telegraphed from San Francisco that he had purchased [illegible],000 tons of railroad iron, to arrive in time to be laid down this year. The paper mentioned questions the veracity of this statement, says: "Our private apprehensions are that it was never purchased or never shipped," and hopes the OREGONIAN will answer its queries about the matter. Now as we have been directly appealed to, and as it is in our power to answer on this point, we shall do it. To set this question at rest once for all, we print the following telegram:

SAN FRANCISCO, August 26, 1869.

To B. HOLLADAY, Portland:

I have sold your agent, to arrive by vessels now on the way, two thousand tons railroad iron. One vessel is now over 140 days out, and daily expected. A. A. COHEN.

We suppose this matter is now settled. The public will see just what the prospect is for the completion of the first section of the road this year.

But the same paper says the grading, at the rate at which it is progressing now, will not reach the required distance in time to lay the rails this [illegible]. This is simply the unsupported [illegible] of a person who does not know. The grading will be fully completed within [illegible] and is almost finished now. We know [illegible] however it. Nothing but the loss of the [illegible] carrying the iron can prevent the completion of this section of the [illegible].

The Commercial [illegible] the old controversy about the land grant and wants us to answer [illegible] queries about it. It is our purpose not to be drawn into this controversy. No good can come of making a fight in the newspapers about it. However, we will say that the objection that the section to be constructed on the east side this year does not begin at Portland does not appear to be very formidable, as the party receiving the grant is obliged merely to finish twenty miles of the road this year without reference to the point of beginning. The east side road might commence at Salem, or the west side at McMinnville, and when twenty miles were completed the conditions of the law would be complied with.

As our neighbor has asked us some questions relative to the road on the other side of the river, we should be glad to have him furnish us with a few facts relative to the project which is moving on this side. We should be as glad as he or any one else could be to learn that twenty miles of the west side road will certainly be completed this year. Has the iron been purchased, and is it expected to arrive in time? Will the grading certainly be completed? Are the ties ready? Is a sufficient force employed to make the completion of the first twenty miles by the close of the year a certainty? It would gratify very many persons to be furnished with positive information on these points. We hope to have a response, and a favorable one.

To conclude, we hope that all animosity toward any great project which promises results of so much importance to our State will cease. What sense is there in endeavoring to prejudice the public mind against such an enterprise? Why misrepresent it, or attempt to shake public confidence in it? It strikes us as the very climax of folly to manifest hostility toward those who come among us from abroad to invest their money in our State, to stimulate its industries and to promote its development. Happily they are very few among us who are advocates of so insane and ruinous a course. Even China is discarding such a policy as antagonistic to her interests, and to the spirit of the age.

Be Consistent!

The Stockton (Cal.) Independent truly declares that no man among all those who are riding the Chinese hobby can drink the tea of commerce without outraging consistency and violating sound logic. The tea that we import and consume to the value, annually, of tens of millions, is grown, cured and put up by Mongolians in China and Japan, Mongolian countries, under and to the profit of Mongolian landlords, superintendents and factors, and nearly everything that employers and employed eat, drink and wear, and all the premises they occupy, are produced and furnished by Mongolians, and all the squanderings and foolish expenditures of employers and employes go to the enrichment or benefit of Mongolians. When we buy the tea thus produced we not only employ these Mongolian producers and enrich their Mongolian employers, but we transfer from the circulation of our country to theirs the coin required to pay for this production, and add largely to the wealth and revenues of their Mongolian government. Tea produced there for fifteen to twenty cents per pound costs our consumers seventy-five cents to one and a half dollars per pound. It is supposed that if they can come here and raise it so that it will not cost our consumers more than forty to fifty cents per pound. While doing so they would contribute to the revenue of ours instead of their native Government, they would hire their habitations from us instead of from Mongolian landlords, the profits on their products would go to American instead of Mongolian employers, superintendents and factors; they would buy their food and raiment of Americans, instead of Mongolians, or at the worst would employ American ships to bring them at a considerable profit from their native country. Thus we would get our tea at about one-third or one-fourth what it costs to import it, and a fraction of the low home cost, instead of the whole of the foreign cost of our purchases would be sent to the Mongolian countries. It is clear that we employ Mongolian labor at greater cost to ourselves and more exclusively to the benefit of Mongolians in the former than in the latter case, and that if we are opposed to employing Mongolians we must quit drinking tea if we would be consistent or rational. The same reasoning will apply in many other respects.

In General.

Gerrit Smith admits in a recent letter, curiously enough for a prohibitionist, that a prohibitory liquor law cannot be enforced "by such governments as the world is generally cursed with. A new style of government is needed." Mr. Smith wisely abstains from attempting the difficult task of describing what kind of a government it would take to enforce such a law, and so we must perforce conclude that there is no such government.

The Owyhee Tidal Wave very curtly says: "The old prejudices against the steamboat, the railroad, the sewing machine and the Chinamen are one and the same and are the outgrowth of a misshapen, pedantic and hypocritical pretense, to enlist the working man (who has no more respect for labor than we have, and only labors, as we do, because he is obliged to in consequence of Adam's curse,) in the cause of Democracy to held feed a pack of political hounds."

John Quincy Adams has been nominated by the Democracy for Governor of Massachusetts. It is refreshing to hear him instructing his party that they "must accept universal and unqualified suffrage as an established fact." Do the Oregon Democracy understand? Do they appreciate their position? Can they not see that they are falling far behind their party brethren at the East? They must make an advance step soon, or they will never catch up. Come, Herald and Press and Democrat, wake up your party! Laggards, arouse!

The Pennsylvania papers are busy scoring Asa Packer, Democratic candidate for Governor, who persistently dodges the tax-gatherers on three millions out of the four in his possession. There are too many Asa Packers. The tax officials know that everywhere the poor men avd those of moderate means meet the burdens of taxation to the last penny, while the sharp and successful study of many of the millionaires is to cover, by various dodges, as much of their wealth as possible. If custom can make a practice honest this is certainly made honest, but only in that way.

It is a most significant fact, showing how rapidly the manufacturing spirit has progressed in the South, that, at the textile exposition in Cincinnati just ended, Georgia had on display a larger variety of goods than any one of the Northwestern States. Prodigious sums are being invested in manufacturing in Georgia, and that State is undergoing a rapid transformation from what she used to be—uncompromisingly a free-trade State—into an ardent supporter of protection. It will not be long before we shall be able to rely upon that part of the Union for votes in Congress in favor of protective duties, fully as now we rely upon Pennsylvania.

THE WEST.

Three ships are going from Burrard Inlet to San Francisco to obtain crews for Australia and South America.

Marysville (Cal.) anticipates an increase of business and of population, on the completion of two additional railroads.

Col. R. S. Williamson, U. S. engineer and T. J. Best, assistant, are on their way to Cape Blanco, to examine the work on the lighthouse in course of erection there.

The Bellingham Bay coal mine is turning out from 120 to 140 tons of coal daily. The bark Amethyst has loaded and sailed since work started. The bark Pochattan is nearly loaded, and another bark is due from San Francisco. The Company are endeavoring to make up for lost time.

The San Francisco Democratic Committee is levying assessments upon the candidates of its party, for campaign purposes, on a regular schedule and at a rather steep rate. The assessments are said to be proportioned as follows: Assemblymen, $350 each; Senators, $500 each; Mayor, $1,000; Police Judge, $1,000; Assessor, $1,000; Sheriff, $1,250; District Judge, $1,250; Harbor Commissioner, $3,000.

A Victoria paper says: When Mr. Johnston was at Fort Shepherd, a fews days ago, two Frenchmen arrived from the Big Bend gold mines and reported new discoveries and rich diggings. They bought a quantity of goods, which were placed on board the steamer Forty Nine and taken up the Columbia. The Forty-Nine makes one trip a month. Bell, and party, from Victoria, have gone into the Big Bend diggings.

The Pacific fisheries are steadily growing in importance. The fleet after codfish this year numbers about twenty vessels, ranging from 50 to 400 or 500 tons each, and all owned in this city; and more vessels have been ordered from New England. The catch has not been so large this year as in former seasons, but some fluctuations are to be anticipated, and so far the business has been less precarious in the Pacific ocean than in the Atlantic, while there will always be fewer risks from storms.

From the Victoria Colonist: The imports for the quarter ending 25th June last, amounted to $421,735 47, as against $305,145 40, for the previous quarter, or $499,913 87 for the corresponding quarter of last year. We are free to express surprise, agreeable surprise at these results. We confess we did not expect the imports for the second quarter, this year, would exceed those of the first so much as $116,590 07, or that they would come within $78,178 40 of those of the corresponding quarter for 1868.

The following extract is from a letter from the Gulf of Georgia whale fishery: We killed three whales on Wednesday, Aug 11th. Two were killed in the morning and one in the afternoon, two were safely secured. We had rather a strong breeze from the northwest and a heavy sea running, and the whales all ran to windward, making it rather awkward at times to kill. The whales were killed in three quarters of an hour from the time of fastening to them with a line. We also killed one on Friday, which has been secured. We lost one whale by its sinking.

A fight took place lately at the Three Buttes, Elk river, between the Blackfeet and Kootenai Indians. The battle lasted two days, when the Kootenais were driven back with a loss of twelve killed and a large number wounded, besides losing all their buffalo meat and hides and all their baggage and a number of horses. A party of Blackfeet pursued the Kootenais to Wild Horse and captured some fifteen animals, besides five horses belonging to the H. B. Co. They were pursued, but without success. Reports reach Kootenai that five miners on their way in from Montana, had been slain on Tobacco Plains by Blackfeet Indians.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—At a meeting of the Republican County Committee, held last night, the ratification meeting appointed for to-night, was postponed until to-morrow evening.

The Young Men's Independent Club met last night and adopted a Constitution and By Laws, which were signed by over two hundred persons.

In his speech at the Democratic ratification meeting, wherein he assailed the People's party, Mr. McCoppin made the statement that he had reason to know that every grand jury empanneled when the People's party was in power, was packed. The Bulletin to-day quotes McCoppin's speech and publishes a list of the names of citizens composing each grand jury from October 1859 to November 1867, in itself a complete refutation of the charge.

A shooting affray occurred at 1 A. M. to-day at the Sherlock, on the beach, during which a man named Laffen, was shot in the thigh and badly wounded, by Wm Payne. Laffen was endeavoring to keep between Payne and another man, when he was accidentally shot. Payne was walking the streets to-day and not arrested.

The Democracy held meetings at Hayes' Park and in the tenth ward last night. McCoppin addressed the tenth ward meeting.

Yesterday a fire occurred in the back part of a house at No. 558 Montgomery street. The house was occupied by John Thompson and family, and was damaged to the extent of about twelve hundred dollars. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

Chas. Merkelbeck, aged 73 years, fell from the Vallejo wharf into the bay, while asleep, yesterday afternoon, and was drowned.

Edward Quinn was sentenced to pay a fine of forty dollars to-day, for knocking a Chinaman down with a cobble stone.

NEVADA.

ELKO, Aug. 26.—Sing-Man & Choy Chew the Chinese merchants, passed here this morning on their return from the east. They express themselves muches pleased with their visit. Their trip proved very successful in a financial point of view.

Five new emigrant cars passed here from the East to-day for Sacramento. The road to Cope is progressing rapidly, being completed over the mountains. The can now complete four to five miles per day. Theey traveling is increasing to Cope. Emigrant wagons are leaving daily for that point. New ledges are being located and placer diggings are showing very rich dirt—25 to 30 cents per pan being obtained. A stage line will be put on the road as soon as completed.

VIRGINIA CITY, Aug. 26.—Next President Train has compromised with the Bank of California, and is hobnobbing with its agent. Peace reigns within our border.

Francis Cardiff, miner in the Hale & Norcross, and late from Portland, Oregon, died at 2 o'clock to-day, under circumstances that lead to the belief that he was accidentally poisoned by taking the wrong medicine. An inquest will be held.

Piute Jim has been arrested and is now in jail for robbing and killing a Coinaman near Buckland's station a few days since.

The miners are moving en masse to protect their interests by encouraging the consideration of the great Sutro tunnel. The have subscribed $9,000 and books are now open for general subscriptions. Mr. Sutro has the utmost confidence in the success of the enterprise.

Mails and express five hours late to-night, owing to the railroad fire.

FROM THE NORTH.

Mr. Seward at Victoria.

VICTORIA, Aug. 25.—The steamer Moses Taylor, with 75 passengers and about $75,000 left for San Francisco, yesterday.

His Excellency, Gov. Musgrave, has arrived and assumed government.

Mr. Seward and party, from Sitka, arrived on the Active this morning and will be the recipients of a grand dinner to-morrow.

A base ball match between the officers of the United States ship Pensacola and a city club will be played this afternoon.

J. W. Carter's theatrical troupe arrived from the Sound yesterday, and will play a short engagement here.

BUSINESS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

We extract from the Sacramento Union's weekly report:

The all-absorbing subject of consideration among all classes in this community at the present time is the "tightness in the money market." The effect of this "tightness" is no longer confined to the stock and real estate speculators, but extends to the farmers, mechanics and laborers; the former cannot sell their crops at a fair price, and the latter are thrown out of employment because there is not enough money in the State to conduct its business. The approach of this alarming state of affairs has been neither slow nor unnoted. He must be a very dull man of business, indeed, who finds no cause for reflection in the fact that while money is abundant in the Atlantic States, for all legitimate business purposes, at 5 to 6 per cent. per annum, it cannot be obtained here at 24 per cent., for none of the banks are lending—except to their friends. Is there any man so thoughtless as not to inquire why it is, when the State is blessed with a bounteous harvest, and the markets for its disposal are excited and rising; when our Wool, Wine and Fruit products are in demand abroad at high prices; when the papers are full of reports of the immense yields of the silver and gold mines, the fisheries and the lumber business are active, and the steady stream of cheap labor is flowing into the State, and the harbor is crowded with the merchant ships of all nations ready to bear away our produce, trade is paralysed? What is it that neutralizes the advantages of so many elements of progress and prosperity, and converts them into obstacles? No intelligent man who has studied the subject, can doubt that the miserable financial system, or rather want of system, is the root of the vile tree which, Upas-like, has vitiated the infant life of our young State, by bending all its energies and resources to extend speculation, instead of encouraging production and manufacture.

The present state of affairs affords occular demonstration that millions of dollars employed in inflating the value of real estate; warehouses and stores filled with imported goods worth many millions, granaries overflowing, vineyards and orchards loaded down with luscious fruits; gold and silver mines of ever so great richness, do not insure the vigorous, permanent prosperity of a people whose finances are controlled by an irresponsible private corporation.

The conduct of certain papers in this city which abuse the Secretary of the Treasury because he refuses to lend the public money to a private corporation, is a painful exhibition of the degradation of the press when controlled by mercenary motives. Boutwell has no more right to lend the Bank of California the money in the Sub-Treasury here than he would have to lend the "gold sharps" of New York the money in the Treasury there. The argument that this money has been collected from the people here, and therefore should be returned to them on conditions different to those exacted from the people of other States in the Union, is simply ridiculous. To abuse the Federal Government because it does not comply with such a ridiculous demand is disgraceful, and certainly not calculated to hasten any movement for our relief.

The local finances are in extremis. It is almost impossible to borrow money on any terms. As high as three and four per cent. is offering by responsible parties. Greenback sold yesterday at 73½, while the telegraph quoted gold at New York at 133½, which made greenbacks worth 75c. This affords an advantage of 1½ per cent. to importers per railway, who pay for their goods and freight in currency, and enables the agents of Eastern and Western commercial houses to undersell our local merchants to that extent. This is the reason why such heavy importations of goods are arriving via railroad. Upward of 1,500 tons of goods have come to hand by this means within the past thirty days, valued at $3,500,000, including boots and shoes, clothing, dry goods, fancy goods and furniture. As a matter of course, this cuts off an equal amount of the trade of our local importers. What makes the matter worse is the conduct of the banks in charging 1½ per cent. for drafts on Eastern cities, which makes it profitable to take the money out of the State. Sterling exchange is lower at New York, 109½@110½, but owing to the scarcity of coin here, exchange is not procurable, which causes stagnation in the grain market.

In general markets there has been scarcely a transaction during the week worthy of special notice. Nearly all the goods which have arrived by sea during the past fifteen days have gone into bonded store, for want of coin to pay the duties thereon, which gives the importers by railroad another advantage. Bags are offering very low for cash. One firm sold several small lots of 22x36 Dundee hand sewed burlaps, at 9½c. The current price is about 10@10½c. Boots and shoes are dull at declining prices, with large supplies coming via railroad, which threatens to close up most of the local factories.

Case goods are lower, generally. Oysters are quotable at $2 50@2 87½, according to brand. Coal is cheaper, Cumberland, in casks, selling at $21@22 per ton, Australian at $11@12, Bellingham Bay, $10. Vancouver Island coal is held at $13.

Candles are without movement at the following rates: Grant's, 17c. San Francisco, 16½@17c, Grose's, 18c, German, 17@17½c. Coffees is nominally quotable: Rio, 18@18½c, Manila, 18c, Costa Rica, 18½@19c; Java, 25½@26c, Kona, 18c.

Dry goods are offering at very low prices, but not sufficiently so to create trade.

Oils of all description continue dull. There has been no change in coal, which may be bought at 40@43c for any brands for cash. Lard is dull at $1 50@1 62½. Rice is almost unsaleable, with immense stocks in bond and stores. No. 1 China quotable at 6@6½c, No. 2, 5½@5½c. The Ma[illegible] added 12,000 mats, and the John L. Dimmock 21,500 from China; the Cotherstone 7,000 from Siam. Salt is lower, Bay selling at $12@14 per ton, Carman Island $13@20; Liverpool $27@30, the Alaska brought 19 tons from Alaska, which is reported sold at $14 per ton.

Sugars are firm. There was an auction sale of Central American grocery grades in small lots, on sixty days, which brought 13@13¾. Hawaiians are held at 12@12½c for choice brands. China is quotable at 10@11c. The California refinery prices are: Circle A Crushed, 14¾c; Granulated, 13½c, Powdered, 14¾c; Golden C, 13c. The Pacific Refinery prices are about one fourth of a cent less. Teas are without movement. The J. L. Dimmock brought 2,000 chests from China. The mail steamer due to-day has a large parcel on board.

It is stated that the publishing house of Harper & Brothers pays $600,000 a year for white paper. The circulation of their periodical works is as follows: Harper's Bazar (weekly) 70,000; Harper's Weekly 95,000; Harper's Magazine 118,008. The number of persons employed in the establishment is 502, of whom one third are women. The catalogue of the publications of the house contain 3,098 works, in 4,056 volumes, of which 1,444 are original and 1,654 are reprints. The whole number of copies issued during the year reaches millions.

THE EQUALIZER!

Treating Disease by Vacuum!

DR. H. A. BODMAN

HAVING PURCHASED HADFIELD'S EQUALIZER and the Patent Right for Multnomah county, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to treat successfully those Chronic cases on whom all other means of cure have failed.

Having used this Instrument in connection with his former practice for about three months, he is satisfied that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it in curing Chronic Disease. He does not believe in the system of advertising cases cured, but any number of such may be seen on record at his office, consisting principally of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Curvature of the Spine, Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Weak Chests, Asthma, Narrow Chests, Weak Lungs, Weak Backs, Weak, Stiff and Rheumatic Limbs, Sciatica, Spasms, Epilepsy, Palsy, St. Vitus Dance, Prolapsus Uteri, Obstructed Menstruation, with all their concomitant Diseases, Impotency and all kinds of weakness of the Generative Organs. Spermatorrhœa confidently cured in from four to six weeks without medicine.

He uses other remedies when necessary, but the Equalizer generally performs the cure without the aid of any medicines whatever. It brings a greater supply of blood and nutrition to all weak parts, thus creating new life and tone, and health, and strength in those parts. It breaks up congestion and inflammation by equalizing the circulation throughout every part of the system.

Give it a fair trial and you will be satisfied with the results. It has been examined by thousands of physicians of all Schools of Medicine, and there has not been one dissenting voice to the correctness of the principle; all acknowledge that it fills a vacuum in the Science of Medicine.
